

Southern Regional Testing Agency, Inc.
Information Guide and Sample Questions
Intra/Extra Oral Computerized Examination

This computerized examination will consist of 50 multiple choice questions, where some questions may have photographs for identification of oral conditions. The examination will have a 1-hour time limit.

Some topics this exam will cover, but is not limited to:

- Document findings in patient records
- Conditions of the oral cavity
- Normal and abnormal anatomy
 - For example: Candidiasis amalgam tattoo or geographic tongue
- Reasons for antibiotic premedication
- Medical conditions which might affect the oral cavity

Sample questions:

1. Which of the following would not be a possible cause for the gingiva to appear as in this photo?

- a. Cyclosporin
 - b. Calcium channel blockers
 - c. Beta blockers
 - d. Phenytoin (Dilantin)
2. Which of the following is NOT a cause of an amalgam tattoo?
- a. Apicectomy
 - b. Extraction
 - c. Placement of a restoration
 - d. Placing localized antibiotic
3. What is most likely the cause of angular cheilitis?
- a. Virus
 - b. Dry mouth
 - c. Candida Albicans
 - d. Allergic reaction

4. Use the picture below select the best answer that describes the bruised lesion near #29:

- a. Ankyloglossia
- b. Fibroma
- c. Melanin pigmentation
- d. Amalgam tattoo

5. Patient presents with lesion that is not painful and has been present for some time. This most likely is:

- a. Oral fibroma
- b. Aphthous ulcer
- c. Verruca vulgaris
- d. Mucocele